l: Allen H-4 (no date) 1932 R11 Georgia R11

524

Manners and Customs

" A game the Georgian horsemen call trocus, beloved by all classes. (At side) The Georgians get used to horse-riding from childhood "

Castelli further comments on a similar drawing—" Having arrived in Kutais, where resides the King of the Georgians (sic), they took me to see a game of ball, played by players mounted on horseback. This game is very popular, being played not only by the nobles, but by the King himself "

[face page 335